

German History Society Annual Meeting and Conference 20 October 2007

“Food in German History”

- 10.00 German History Society AGM
- 11.00 Tea/Coffee break
- 11.15 – 11.45 Beat Kümin (University of Warwick)

“Trefflich wohl bewirtheet - Eating Out in the Holy Roman Empire”
- 11.45 - 12.15 Leighton S. James (Centre for Eighteenth Century Studies, University of York)

“Bread, Beer and the 'Other': Food, drink and cultural differences during the Revolutionary and Napoleonic Wars”
- 12.15 – 12.45 Discussion
- 12.45 – 13.30 Lunch
- 13.30 - 14.00 Dorothee Brantz (Centre for Metropolitan Studies, TU Berlin)

“The Invention of Consumer Society: Meat Eating Practices in Berlin, 1870-1914”
- 14.00 – 14.30 Dorothee Wierling (Forschungsstelle für Zeitgeschichte, Hamburg)

“The nazification of coffee. Hamburg coffee merchants 1933 to 1945”
- 14.30 – 15.00 Maren Möhring (Universities of Zurich and Cologne)

“Foreign cuisine in West Germany”
- 15.00 Tea/Coffee break
- 15.15 - 16.00 Discussion

The AGM/Conference will take place at the German Historical Institute, 17
Bloomsbury Square, London WC1A 2NJ

Please contact the Secretary of the German History Society, Annika Mombauer, for further details. A.Mombauer@open.ac.uk