

PHILOSOPHY'S PROBLEM WITH RELIGION: THE INTERPLAY OF FAITH AND REASON FROM SCHOLASTICISM TO ENLIGHTENMENT

British Academy Early-Career Regional Event

Thursday, 4 September 2014

German Historical Institute London • 17 Bloomsbury Square • London WC1A 2NJ

- 9:30 am Welcome
- 9:45 am Cornelia Linde (German Historical Institute London): Faith and Reason in Thirteenth-Century Quodlibeta
- 10:30 am Coffee break
- 11:00 am Kantik Ghosh (Oxford): Religio-Intellectual History in Late-Medieval England: Possible Directions of Research
- 11:45pm Jill Kraye (Warburg Institute): Christian Humanism, Platonism and Concordism: New Approaches to the Interplay of Faith and Reason in Fifteenth-Century Italy
- 12:30 pm Lunch
- 1:45 pm Guido Giglioni (Warburg Institute): Averroes's Destructio destructionum in the Renaissance
- 2:30 pm Roberta Giubilini (Warburg Institute): 'Favello sempre secondo i filosofi': The Incompatibility of Philosophical and Theological Speculation in Benedetto Varchi (1503-1565)
- 3:15 pm Maria Rosa Antognazza (King's College London): The Place of Theology in Leibniz's Thought
- 4:00 pm Coffee break
- 4:30 pm Neil Tarrant (Imperial College): Censoring Medical Astrology in Late Sixteenth-Century Italy: Defining Astral Knowledge in an Augustinian Age
- 5:15 pm Conclusion

Attendance is free, but please register with Cornelia Linde (linde@ghil.ac.uk) as seats are limited.