

German
Historical Institute
London

Britain, the British Empire and Migration
20th Summer School
Jointly Convened by the GHIL and LMU

25–28 July 2023

Tuesday, 25 July

9 am Welcome and General Introduction: Christina von Hodenberg (Director, GHIL), Tanja Buehrer (LMU), Indra Sengupta (GHIL)

Session 1: A British Diaspora? Migrants, Settlers and Sojourners in the British Empire in the Nineteenth Century I (Marjory Harper, Aberdeen)

9.30 am Causes of migration and return

1 pm Sandwich Lunch

2.30 pm Getting to know your Host: the GHIL, who we are, what we do

Wednesday, 26 July

Session 2: A British Diaspora? Migrants, Settlers and Sojourners in the British Empire in the Nineteenth Century II (Marjory Harper, Aberdeen)

9.30 am Migrant experiences and identities (Professor Marjory Harper, Aberdeen)

1 pm Sandwich Lunch (packed lunch to take along on the walk)

2:30 pm London Walk on the theme of migration with Michael Brown (start at Tower Hill, finish at Liverpool St Station)

Thursday, 27 July

Session 3: Welfare and Citizenship across the British Empire I (Gurminder K Bhambra, Sussex)

9.30 am Questions of welfare

1 pm Sandwich Lunch

Friday 28 July

Session 4: Welfare and Citizenship across the British Empire II (Gurminder K Bhambra, Sussex)

9.30 am Questions of citizenship

1 pm Sandwich Lunch

2 pm End of Summer School